The advertisement features a large, stylized flame graphic in shades of orange and yellow against a red background. At the top center, the Johma Professional logo is displayed in a white banner. The main text, 'Een beetje meer pit doet wonderen!', is written in a large, white, bold font with a red outline, following the curve of the flame. In the foreground, a black tub of Johma Professional Vlamsalade is shown, resting on a wooden cutting board. The tub's label includes the Johma Professional logo, the product name 'Vlam® salade', and a 'Beter & anders' logo. Surrounding the tub are various fresh ingredients, including red and green bell peppers, sliced red and green chili peppers, and pieces of bread.
